

Visiting a hospital can be stressful. Whether you are at the hospital for tests, surgery, or visiting a patient, finding your way can be stressful and confusing.

The creators of Here2There software understand your need to make this visit as pleasant as possible. Here2There can help ease that stress by providing detailed maps that help people find their way around your hospital even when there are no volunteers around to direct them.

Here2There Directory Kiosk's

provide custom built information about your hospital, ranging from the emergency room, specialty departments, doctors office, or the cafeteria. You decide how much or little information that you want to provide.

Here2There is always ready to point the way.

Here2There software assists people with frequently asked questions such as;

Q: Where do I go for an MRI?

A: MRI are done in Diagnostic Services.

Q: Where do I go for a CAT-Scan?

A: CAT-Scans are done in Diagnostic Services.

Q: Where do I go for a Mammogram?

A: Mammograms are done in Diagnostic Services.

Q: Where do I go for an Ultrasound?

A: Ultrasounds are done in Diagnostic Services.

24 Hours
365 Days a week
No Days off!

